

Image source: Pixabay

Kia ora, Kia orana, Talofa lava, Bula Vinaka, Fakaalofa lahi atu, Talofa, Malo e lelei, Fakatalofa atu, Halo, Aloha, Noa ia e mauri, Aloha, and warm Pacific greetings to you all.

Calling for abstract submissions!

ATLAANZ Online Conference 30 Nov – 1 Dec 2022

Toitū te tangata - The whole person

3Days | 2Styles of Engagement

ATLAANZ is committed to creating a professional platform for its members and affiliated communities that is equitable, socially just, diverse and inclusive. Toitū te tangata – The whole person is this year's theme focused on discussions related to the cultural and holistic wellbeing of the tertiary student and staff member post-Covid19, and aligns to the Code of Practice for Pastoral Care. We're excited to present 3Days|2Styles of engagement to ensure learning and teaching practices discussed at the conference find localisation or exploration in attending institutes.

Conference call for abstracts close: 19 August 2022

PRESENTATION & ABSTRACTS
Presentation type:	What does it look like?	Abstracts include:
Lightning (5 minutes)	A few minutes explaining an innovation or practical solution. 5 minutes only, 4 of these will fit into a block	- overview of topic
PowerPoint Presentation (20 mins)	15-minute presentation + 5 mins Q& A time	- overview of topic
Workshop (40 minutes)	A presentation, followed by an activity which could be one (or several) of the following: breakout room conversations, collaborative brainstorm, etc	General guidelines: e.g.; - overview of topic - activities, resources, timing for each part
Wānanga (120 minutes)	A presentation followed by a range of activities which might be a discussion, breakout room conversations, collaborative resource development, etc, leading to innovative outputs takeaways action plans	General guidelines: e.g.; - overview of topic - activities, resources, timing for each part

REGISTRATION DETAILS

Abstracts: Click here

Conference email: (deborah.laurs@vuw.ac.nz)

